

Wyoming Wheat Growers Annual Meeting December 6, 2011 Albin, Wyoming

Doors opened at 8:00 a.m. for the exhibitors to set up and for registration. Coffee and donuts were sponsored by First State Bank. President Ken Tremain called the meeting to order at 9:15 a.m.. Ken introduced the board members and explained the scholarship and told where the scholarship recipients were going to school. Keith Kennedy, Wheat Marketing Commission, introduced the board members, told of the organizations that they support, the activities that they attend, wheat trials, goals of the board. Tim Anderson helped Keith with the presentation. Keith and Tim talked on the different varieties of wheat and their characteristics. Dan Hughes, from U.S. Wheat, gave a report on what they are doing to keep wheat competitive in the world markets. The exhibitors introduced themselves and told about the companies they represent. At 10:00 a.m. the break was sponsored by First State Bank. Derek Jackson, Burns Insurance, gave a talk on "Crop Insurance-how much do you need". Keith Price talked on "The Value and Importance of Estate Planning." Pres. Ken called a recess for lunch at 11:58, catered by the Albin Café. Pres. Ken called the meeting to order at 1:10 p.m.. Dan Maltby from "Marketing Strategies" gave a presentation. Paul Penner from NAWG gave a presentation. Keith Kennedy and Casey Madsen gave a talk on a "White Wheat Facility. The afternoon break was sponsored by Pinnacle Bank. Door prizes were also given out. Leslie Smith, KNEB Farm News Director and Webmaster, gave a talk on "How to Effectively Deal with the Public and the Media". Heath Van Eaton told us about Wyo Comp. and gave a bio on his work with plastics and wheat straw. Election and By-law change: Derek Jackson was elected to the member at large and Ken Tremain-President, Tyler Anderson-Vice President, Russell Beavers-Recording Secretary. The by-law change from "the term for which this corporation shall exist shall be for a period of fifty (50) years," to "The term for which this corporation shall exist is perpetuity" passed unamissly. The last of the door prizes were awarded. There being no further business the WWGA was adjourned at 4:55 p.m..

Respectfully Submitted

Russell Beavers

Recording Secretary