

Wyoming Wheat Growers Annual Meeting
December 11, 2012
Albin, Wyoming

Doors opened at 8:00 a.m. for the exhibitors to set up and for registration. Coffee and donuts were sponsored by First State Bank. President Ken Tremain called the meeting to order at 9:00 a.m., and then introduced the board members. At 9:15 there was a "Crop Research Foundation Quality Report". 9:25 Keith Kennedy gave a report on the Wheat Marketing Commission, introduced the board members and told of the activities and board goals. 9:45 Dan Hughes, US Wheat Associates Vice Chairman, gave a report on what they are doing to keep wheat competitive in the world markets. At 10:05 the exhibitors introduced themselves and told about the companies they represent. The break at 10:10 was sponsored by First State Bank. After the break, Shad Weber from USDA-RMA talked about insurance policies and FSA. 11:15 was the "Producer Farm Practice Panel" with Derek Jackson as moderator and "Producers" Theron Anderson, Dale Sandberg, Larry Mullock, Tom May, Lee Peterson and Alton Lerwick. 11:45 the Resolutions and by-laws were read, and elections were held. At 11:50 an award was presented to John Baker. At 12:05 the meeting was adjourned for lunch and was sponsored by Pinnacle Bank of Torrington and catered by Albin Senior Center. President Ken called the meeting to order at 1:30 p.m. Gary Moss from the University of Wyoming Academic Planning, talked about the profitability of the SAREC winter wheat dryland rotations (no-till, conventional, and organic) with help from Brian Lee. 2:00 p.m. Paul Penner, National Association of Wheat Growers-2nd Vice President, told about the research, technology, operating, and planning at NAWG. At 2:20 Dusty Tallmon, National Wheat Foundation, talked about the cost of, and why, the remodeling of the building. 2:40 Heath Van Eaton, WyoComp, talked about straw composites and bio-fuel. 3:15 p.m. door prizes were drawn. There being no further business the WWGA Annual Meeting was adjourned at 3:30 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted
Russell Beavers
Recording Secretary